edit: I updated almost all of the sprites to look cleaner and more contrasting! I also used the otter sprite from my new game, Tiny Town. The frog is supposed to look like keroppi!
edit: due to popular demand, the otter walks a little faster now edit: Woah, I haven't been on scratch for like a month and I came back and I guess I got featured!!

“Because of Scratch, I’ve become more confident to try new things and express myself — and more comfortable with taking risks and making mistakes. Now, when something goes wrong, I see it as an opportunity to learn something new.”
